

The Sinclair "Smear documentary" concerning John Kerry cries foul play. It is the very reason we need equal time in the media and exemplifies the dangers of large news monopolies. The FCC should prohibit this show from being disseminated without the opportunity for a similar show with equal time being required for the Kerry campaign.